ESTONIAN PRESIDENCY OF THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN UNION

On 30th July, 2017, Estonia has their first Presidency of the Council of the European Union. Prime Minister Mr. Jüri Ratas and President of the European Commission Mr. Jean-Claude Juncker discussed how to make substantial progress, in cooperation with the European Commission, in the key issues highlighted in the programme of the Estonian Presidency, including the free movement of data and renewing the strategy on cybersecurity.

"Yesterday, we celebrated with the Estonian people the start of our first Presidency of the Council of the European Union. This gave us the positive energy to take on this great responsibility, which we will carry out over the next 6 months," said Prime Minister Ratas.

"In the beginning of May, President Juncker said that he expects the Estonian Presidency to make substantial progress especially in digital themes. The free movement of data is a precondition for the Digital Single Market," said Prime Minister Ratas. "To enable the free movement of data in Europe, trust and security need to be increased. To this end, we need to put our focus also on cybersecurity issues."

Prime Minister Ratas and President of the European Commission Juncker also discussed social and defence policy issues, which are priority areas both for Estonia and the European Commission. Prime Minister Ratas thanked President Juncker for his support to and cooperation in the preparations of the Estonian Presidency.

MEETING WITH THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY

On 14th August 2017, Mr. Marko Moric, CEEC Chairman, together with the EuroCham delegation had a courtesy meeting with the Vice-Chairman of the National Assembly, Mr. Phung Quoc Hien.

While the EVFTA was one of the topics of meeting, the overall goal was to strengthen ties between and affiliated Business Associations and the National Assembly. Thus, all parties are confident, towards working together to improve the business environment in Vietnam.

Vice Chairman Phung Quoc Hien also stated that Vietnam is ready to create favourable conditions for European businesses to learn the market and envisage long-term business investment in Vietnam, especially in fields where Vietnam's demand and European know-how complement one another.

EUROCHAM VIETNAM DELEGATION ON EVFTA TO BRUSSELS

Between 4th and 8th September, EuroCham brought a delegation of more than 25 members to Brussels, initiating a successful mission dedicated to promoting and discussing the EU-Vietnam Free Trade Agreement (EVFTA) implementation and ratification, as well as other relevant topics. This delegation was led by EuroCham Chairman Jens Ruebbert, including 4 other Executive Committee members and a number of Sector Committee and corporate member representatives, with the support of the management team of the secretariat. In some of the meetings, EU Ambassador to Vietnam H.E. Bruno Angelet also joined the delegation. For the sectors Generics, Green Growth and ICT, but also generally for investment and trade promotion with CEE, Dr. Gellert Horvath and Christoph Schill joined on behalf of CEEC.

One highlight of this mission was EuroCham’s participation in a Monitoring Group Hearing at the European Parliament (5 September), presided by the Vice Chair of the Parliament’s Committee for International Trade (INTA) MEP Mr. Jan Zahradil with the presence of its Chair MEP Mr. Bernd Lange, and the Vice Chair of the EP Delegation for relations with Southeast Asia and ASEAN MEP Mr. Jeroen Lenaers. Mr. Mauro Pettricione, Deputy Director-General of the European Commission’s DG Trade and Chief Negotiator for the EVFTA also participated in this session.

Throughout the week, the EuroCham representatives met with several European Commission departments and Commissioners. This included meetings with Commissioner Guenther Oettinger (VP and in charge of Budget and HR), Commissioner Cecilia Malmstroem (Trade), Commissioner Tibor Navracsics (Education, Culture, Youth and Sport), and Commissioner Phil Hogan (Agriculture and Rural Development).

In addition, EuroCham representatives also met with Mr. Kristian Heldberg, Deputy Head of Cabinet of Commissioner Elzbieta Bienkowska (Internal Market, Industry, Entrepreneurship and SMEs); Mr. Leon Delvraux, Trade Advisor to European Commission President Jean-Claude Juncker; Mr. Andras Inotai, Member of Cabinet of Commissioner Karmenu Vella (Environment, Fisheries, Maritime, Affairs); Mr. Denis Čajo and Ms Henriette Geiger, Members of Cabinet of Commissioner Neven Mimica (Commissioner on International Cooperation & Development); Ms. Giulia Del Brenna, Deputy Head of Cabinet of Commissioner Carlos Moedas (Research, Science and Innovation).

Among other key European Commission departments, EuroCham met with the EVFTA team at DG Trade, as well as a team from DG Grow. EuroCham also met with Mr. David Daly, responsible for Southeast Asia affairs at the European External Action Service (EEAS).

The week closed off with a business conference “EVFTA- What’s in for European enterprises and Vietnam’s reform progress?” co-organized by Business Europe, the EU-Vietnam Business Network and Spirits Europe, which also counted on the presence of several officials. After key note speeches by the honorary guests, the first panel session featured many insightful remarks on the Agreement’s possible impact on European enterprises. The second panel gathered speakers to comment the positive impact of European investment in Vietnam in terms of CSR, environmental and labor standards. The conference was attended by around 50 participants, enjoying a widespread representation of businesses and European business associations, as well as European institution officials and Dr. Long from the Vietnam Ministry of Foreign Affairs. Earlier in the week, the delegation also attended the Vietnam National Day reception at the Vietnam Embassy to the EU and Belgium, at the invitation of Ambassador H.E. Vuong Thua Phong, who also spoke at the business conference.

On 9th September, the delegation met with the President of the European Commission Jean-Claude Juncker for a short exchange and report of the successful week.

During these meetings, the EuroCham delegation had the opportunity to discuss several relevant topics and to present three publications: EuroCham Vietnam Whitebook 2017, Greenbook and EVFTA report. Six EuroCham Sector Committees were represented in this delegation and were able to convey their topics and recommendations directly to the EU institution officials.

Thus, EuroCham was able to voice perspectives, concerns and recommendations of the European business community in Vietnam and its members, particularly towards a quick and efficient implementation of the EVFTA. One general conclusion that can be withdrawn from this mission: For both, the European and Vietnamese sides of the discussion, there is a common desire to see the EU and Vietnam advance as close partners in business, in trade and as peoples. For more information on this delegation visit to Brussels, the follow-up and potential of the EVFTA, please do not hesitate to get in touch with your CEEC representatives, Dr. Gellert Horvath and Christoph Schill.

SOFT-LANDING PROGRAM

For CEE companies which want to start doing business in Vietnam, CEEC offers the “Soft-landing service”, which is considered as an active tool for newcomers, to assist their entry into the market. The program contains a multilevel scrutiny and identification procedure which is followed by a one-year business incubation operation in Vietnam. The incubation phase is the key to success in a market with high entry costs and fierce competition; to identify the strong points of goods and services that the company provides; find the matching partners and build the necessary trust for success. The cost of the incubation phase is low thanks to CEEC non-profit operations. The one-year incubation is followed by a large scale assessment of the company’s operation and development in Vietnam. The positive assessments will provide the base for the cooperation of the coming years. During the incubation the company will see what type of business development model works better for its own goals: founding an own company/enter a Joint Venture/ or buying equity in an operating Vietnamese company (technology/management skills for shares).

GEBRÜDER WEISS VIETNAM IS EXPANDING LOGISTICS SERVICES

In future, comprehensive warehouse logistics solutions will be in focus besides air and sea freight at the location in Ho Chi Minh City / renaming completed successfully

Lauterach / Ho Chi Minh City, August 22, 2017. The international transport and logistics company Gebrüder Weiss is expanding its service portfolio in Vietnam. The logistics group is now also offering comprehensive warehouse logistics solutions under its core brand at the location in Ho Chi Minh City: Warehousing, procurement and distribution logistics as well as picking will supplement the previous air and sea freight portfolio. Following the takeover of the two locations in Hanoi and Ho Chi Minh City from a former joint venture, the renaming has been completed successfully.

Logistics market with opportunities for growth

With two offices in the capital Hanoi and the economic metropolis Ho Chi Minh City, Gebrüder Weiss has been active in the powerful centers of North and South Vietnam for five years. International companies of the electronics, furniture and bicycle industry, increasingly companies that produce directly in Vietnam, are part of our customer base. “In 2016 the local economy grew more strongly than hardly any other economy in Asia, the enthusiasm for investment of foreign companies is ongoing. Additionally, Vietnam is a key component of international supply chains – an ideal market for us as a logistics expert,” states Predan. As a result of its geographical location, Vietnam takes over an important bridging function between the Gebrüder Weiss locations in China, Hong Kong and Singapore.

TRAVELING TO CEE COUNTRIES IN AUTUMN

Fall is one of the best times of year to travel to Eastern Europe. The autumn weather maintains a touch of warmth, though the hottest days are left in the past. Rain is often more scarce than it is in springtime. Though nights can get chilly, the brisk air creates a perfect excuse to savor a hot meal near an outside heater on a restaurant terrace or find an inviting pub to relax in until it's time to return to the hotel. Mornings are refreshing, mist lingering over city-center waterways, the streets quiet while other travelers sleep in. If you're looking for a time to travel when the weather is most conducive to enjoying your trip and the crowds are less dense, autumn is the time to do it!

Prague - For many travelers who are able to visit the Czech Republic in the fall, Prague in September has the most appeal. The number of visitors is reduced significantly during this time, though the potential for beautiful weather is still high. Those who travel during this month will find it possible to take day trips to nearby attractions without dealing with unpleasant weather. Strolls in the dusky evenings—especially on Castle Hill, where a view of the city's red rooftops and “thousand spires” can be seen—allow the city to be savored.

Budapest - Fall in Budapest is all about the flavor of the city: enjoy a piping hot bowl of goulash soup to relish the Hungarian's special knack for paprika-seasoned dishes; sample wine at bars whatever the hour and gain an appreciation for this industry that is steadily growing despite setbacks of the past; and historic cafes serve up turn-of-the-century specialties that pair well with steaming cappuccinos.

Bratislava - Travelers to Bratislava in the fall will be welcomed by vendors selling roasted chestnuts and coffeehouses with open doors. Though cold weather approaches, Bratislava carries on with a market selling local goods, and buskers will play for a few coins. Evening may call for attending a performance at the Slovak National Theater.

Warsaw - Warsaw's historic center is lovely in the golden light of fall evenings. Stroll in one of its parks or gardens to catch the last blooms of the season. Jazz, Jewish culture, and even circus arts are celebrated during the fall with seasonal festivals.

Ljubljana - Slovenia's capital city, will welcome you during the fall months. When chilly weather prevails, pop into one of the many charming cafes in the town's historic area, and warm up with a mug of hot coffee and a pastry. Alternatively, visit a museum or Ljubljana Castle to become more familiar with the city's history and cultural heritage.

Dubrovnik - Temperatures in Dubrovnik don't drop below 50 degrees Fahrenheit until December, so though you'll need a sweater or a jacket if you'll be doing sightseeing or strolling after dark, the weather remains mild. Enjoy walking the old town's walls or enjoy a glass of Croatian wine as the sun sets over the Pearl of the Adriatic.
